

Indicator for Issues with time remaining and with due date before the current date

A user-level icon is shown indicating there is an issue with time remaining with a due date before the current date. These issues are not taken into account to calculate the workload.

Important

To include an issue included in the icon, it must have a due date before the current date and time remaining

Clicking on the icon shows all these issues in the JIRA issues filter